DCI's, 7 June 51 (cont'd)

It was reported that the NSC had asked for CIA comment on the ICIS paper on Soviet capabilities against the U.S. The Director said that in our reply we should point out that this was a joint operational intelligence estimate and that such a study could not be prepared unless the Department of Defense was ready to furnish us with appropriate information on U.S. defensive capabilities.

It was reported that Fisher Howe had called and asked whether we had received Gen. Wedemeyer's report and was informed that we hadn't. Howe also said that there was no immediate urgency on CIA's assisting them on their budget.

It was reported that General Bolling had recommended that an ad hoc committee of the IAC study the problem of relations in the field.

Mr. Wolf reported that a new agreement had been reached with C.A.T.
